

Death of a Democracy.

Your decision will allow horizontal and vertical monopolies in the communication industry.

The death starts with consolidated wealth, monopolies, and lobbyists supporting the monopolies. It continues with unabashed nepotism, zero compassion, and no justice. It finishes with the stifling of communication by allowing big businesses to control the media both vertically and horizontally.

Do you care about the average people in America? Do you care about the middle class? I will get my news from BBC International instead of the Bubble Gum news that has been created by the networks.

We own the air waves not the networks or the beurocrats in Washington.
